Collected and composed It's said that I am both
I understand,
How could they know
certain things
Just do not show
I hammer on his door
when thunder strikes
and wild winds roar.

They say I'm in control seems happy on the whole
I understand
How would they know
Certain things
Just doesn't show
I'm crying when it rains
I only scream
near passing trains.

My heart is made of stone
a fact that is well known
I understand
How could they know
a broken heart
won't always show
unnoticed stains of red my T-shirt hides
the arrowhead
